

Avoid the Stress of Monthly Loan Payments

In dramatic contrast to the monthly payments that come with business loans from lending institutions; MCA does not require monthly payments. Additionally, there are no late charges, no fees, and no fixed time frame for collection.

All this is possible because with a cash advance from MCA, we tap into a resource that is readily available to most retail business or restaurant business merchants: future credit and debit card sales. Based on the amount of the cash advance, MCA agrees to purchase a set percent of our customers' daily credit and debit card sales. This amount does not change based on their daily sales. Because we have confidence in our customers and their businesses, we tie our success to that of our customers.
